

SOLUTION

Forward Chaining is a data-driven inference technique. It starts with known facts and applies rules whose conditions are satisfied.

For example:

- Fact: `bird(tweety)`
- Rule: If something is a bird, then it can fly.
- Derived fact: `can_fly(tweety)`

The program below implements this process recursively.