

PROBLEM STATEMENT

Map coloring is a Constraint Satisfaction Problem (CSP) where each region of a map must be assigned a color such that no two adjacent regions have the same color. The objective is to assign colors to all regions while satisfying the constraint that neighboring regions must have different colors.